

Desert Arroyo Residence

Scottsdale, Arizona

Located on an unusual five-acre site, the house sits between mountains and a beautiful arroyo. By taking advantage of a view from the southern exposure, the home blends beautifully into the desert environment becoming one with the contours of the desert. The residence was designed for an active retired couple that enjoys the indoor/ outdoor recreational lifestyle of the desert environment. The 6,500 square foot house accommodates family, guests, and entertainment, while maintaining an intimate, efficient living space for the couple.
